Soda

Soda is handsomer than anyone else I know. Soda's movie-star kind of handsome, the kind that people stop on the street to watch go by. He's not as tall as Darry, and he's a little slimmer, but he has a finely drawn, sensitive face that somehow manages to be reckless and thoughtful at the same time. He's got dark-gold hair that he combs back -- long and silky and straight -- and in the summer the sun bleaches it to a shining wheat gold. His eyes are dark brown -- lively, dancing recklessly laughing eyes that can be gentle and sympathetic one moment and blazing with anger the next. He has Dad's eyes, but Soda is one of a kind. He can get drunk in a drag race or dancing without even getting near alcohol. Soda never touches a drop -- he doesn't need to. He gets drunk on just plain living. And he understands everybody.

JOURNAL #8

I am grateful for sports. Personally I love sports and would be very bored without them.

I belong to my gymnastics freind group, and my show group. The gymnastics group is because I spent most of my life in the gym and naturally I have (without even noticing) have joined that group, and we still regularly hang out today. The show group is everyone (of a certain bunch) comes back to the Air-Bnb after the show (my dads job) I have known those people for so long they have watched me grow up. Everyone that comes back to the Air-Bnb is all family (not by blood) but I have always known those people and they will always be there for me / everyone.

I was wishing I looked like Paul Newman- he looks tough and I don't- but I guess my own looks aren't so bad. I have light-brown, almost red hair and greenish-gray eyes. I wish they were more gray, because I hate most guys that have green eyes, but I have to be content with what I I have. My hair is longer than a lot of boys wear theirs, squared off in back and long in the front and sides, but Im a greaser and most of my neighborhood rarely bothers to get a hair cut. besides, I look better with long hair
